

Wouldn't You Like to Know? I know a girl with teeth of pearl, And shoulders white as snow; She lives, ah! well, I must not tell— Wouldn't you like to know? Her sunny hair is wondrous fair, And wavy in its flow; Who made it less One little tress— Wouldn't you like to know? Her eyes are blue (celestial hue) And dancing in their glow; On whom they beam With melting gleam— Wouldn't you like to know? Her fingers are like lilies fair, Whose lilies fairest grow; Whose hand they press With fond caress— Wouldn't you like to know? Her lips are red and finely wed, Like roses are they blown; What lover sighs These dewy lips— Wouldn't you like to know? Her foot is small and has a fall Like snow flakes on the snow; But where it goes Beneath the slipper— Wouldn't you like to know? She has a name, the sweetest name That language can bestow; 'T would break the spell If I should tell— Wouldn't you like to know? Answer to No. 1.—OREGON REPUBLICAN.

What is it that makes, says a cotemporary, all those men who associate habitually with women superior to others who do not? What makes that woman who is accustomed and at ease in the society of men, superior to her sex in general? Solely because they are in the habit of free, graceful, continued conversations with the other sex. Women this way lose their frivolity, their faculties awaken, their delicacies and peculiarities unfold all their beauty and captivation in the spirit of intellectual rivalry. And the men lose their pedantic, rude, declamatory or sullen manner. The coin of the understanding and the heart changes continually. Their asperities are rubbed off, their materials polished and brightened, and their richness, like the gold, is wrought into finer workmanship by the fingers of women than it ever could be by those of men. The iron and steel of their character are hidden, like the character and armor of a giant, by studs and knots of gold and precious stones, when they are not wanted in actual warfare. Pioneer.

Rules of Etiquette. Before you bow to a lady in the street permit her to decide whether you may do so or not, by at least a look of recognition. "Excuse my gloves," is an unnecessary apology, for the gloves should not be withdrawn to shake hands. When your companion bows to a lady you should do so also. When a gentleman bows to a lady in your company always bow to him in return. A letter must be answered unless you wish to intimate to the writer that he or his subject is beneath your notice. A visit must be returned in like manner, even though no intimacy is intended. A smiling countenance is pleasant, but excessive laughter should be avoided especially when it is possible for any one to suppose himself derided by it. Whispering in company is always offensive and for the reason that persons present suspect that they are the subject of it.—Pioneer.

Brevities.

Damaged garments—libel suits. The legal tender—lawyers' affection. The instrument of tyranny—A file of soldiers. The key to many men's undoings—whisker. A natural book—the volume of a man's voice. The last blow-out—blowing out the lamp of life. Stage drivers look upon rainy days as peculiarly fare weather. Perkins says he has eaten so many sausages in his day that he is afraid to look a dog in the face. Anybody can lead a horse to a drinking place, but nobody can force him to drink. How different it is with men. An old maid says a woman isn't fit to have a baby who doesn't know how to hold it; and this is as true of a tongue as a baby, adds an old bachelor. One of the sufferers by the late railway accident, rushing wildly about was asked if he was hurt. "No," he said, "but I can't find my umbrella." A would-be wit asked his uncle if the tolling of a bell did not put him in mind of his approaching end. "No, sir," "but the rope puts me in mind of yours." It is the highest duty, privilege and pleasure for great men to earn what they possess, to work their own way through life, to be the architects of their own fortunes. Grief.—We should feel sorrow, but not sink under its oppression; the heart of a wise man should resemble a mirror, which reflects every object without being sullied by any. There is a new song called "Father will Settle the Bill." Miss Jones considers it a fine composition, but her papa can't see it, and Miss Jones says it is because he is so dreadful deaf. A gentleman who has unfortunately broken his word, is anxious to procure some cement that will repair it. The same composition with which people mend their manners may possible answer. Virtue has this happiness, that she can subsist of herself, and knows how to exist without admirers, partisans and protectors; wants assistance approbation does not only affect her, but preserves, purifies, and renders her more perfect. Scientific men have recently discovered that the poison taken into the system from continual smoking of tobacco will cause death in 167 years. We warn our readers who have been smoking nearly that time to break themselves of the habit at once. A timid bachelor at New Bedford, Mass., was recently prevented from making a proposal of marriage to a young lady of that city through the latter having remarked that she recognized his unsteady legs in the distance long before the outline of his features could be distinguished. Mark Twain has this advice for young men with literary aspiration: "Write without pay until somebody offers pay. If nobody offers pay within 3 years the candidate may look upon this circumstance with the most implicit confidence as the sign that sawing wood is what he was intended for." A party of respectable Chicago ladies have formed a society for reclaiming young men, and they go about the streets nights and pick up young men who show signs of dissipation, invite them to their houses, and treat them to ice-cream, chicken-salad, etc., and let them go home sober. Half of the young men in the city lie around the streets nights to be taken in. An artist in Finesale painted a dog so natural that the animal had the hydrophobia during the hot weather. He's the same man that painted a copy of a beer bottle with such skill that the cork flew out just as he was finishing. And after he was married, he painted a picture of his wife's first baby so life-like that it cried, and his wife whipped it before she discovered her mistake. A nice, pious old man in Mass., thought his oxen laid out strength brushing away flies that might be used hauling the corn plow, so he tied bricks to their tails. The plan worked well until one of the bricks struck the old man on the head, when he was carried to the house on a door. He said he hadn't thought of this contingency. The oxen's tails are loose now, and the old man has had his brains soldered in with silver. Poor Fellow!—A Chicago man attacked one night, and injured by what he supposed was a vicious dog, and thinking the dog was mad, he applied the mad-stone to the part affected for two weeks, at an expense of $200, and was cured. What was his surprise to learn that instead of being bitten by a rabid dog, he had been bitten in the rear by a Billy goat. How they do bother him about it!

A Railroad Man Ahead of Railroads.

It is generally understood throughout Polk County that I am selling goods from 25 to 50 per cent cheaper than any other Store this side of Portland. Now I do not offer this as an advertisement, but simply as an explanation. When we have a Railroad from Portland South on the West Side of the River, it will open up a new era for the citizens of the country through which it will pass. Every man can take his wife, leave the children with their uncle, go to Portland and gather up a full list of supplies, at a very trifling expense, and at a figure far below country prices, providing there were not merchants through the country up with the times. But there will be plenty of live men in the arena. All the old fogies will have to give way, buy themselves a little farm, and retire to quiet life. This is not sarcastic, but downright truth, as history of the past proves. And I expect those that are now little children will relate to their children in time hereafter how that, in the olden time, over there, on the hill just across Salt Creek, at Ed. Cliff's old Store House, M. M. Ellis inaugurated the new practice of selling goods at Portland prices, and paid the freights himself. Come and see me. You shall be entertained in a first class manner, with first class goods. M. M. ELLIS.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE CASES REQUIRE PROMPT TREATMENT to render Existence Desirable.

If you are suffering or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or sticky, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspnea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the nature of your eye as brilliant? Is the nature of your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? If so do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia, or liver complaint? self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, MAKE THE MAN. Did You Ever Think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering successful business men, are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, or palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look upon all their rights in the face—none of your downcast looks or other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflated by running to excess. These will not only RUIN THEIR CONSTITUTIONS, but also those they do business with or for. How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about this state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease— IDIOCY, LUNACY, PARALYSIS, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one. Disease of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU Established upward of Nineteen years, IS PREPARED BY H. T. HELMHOLD, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. —AND— 104 South Tenth St., Phila. FRENCH MEDICAL OFFICE. Dr. Julien Perrault, Dr. of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris, Graduate of the University of Queen's College and Physician of the St. John Baptist Society of San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT HAS THE PLEASANTURE to inform patients and others seeking confidential medical advice that he can be consulted daily at his office, Army Hall Building, North East corner of Montgomery and Sacramento streets, San Francisco, Rooms Nos. 9, 10, 11, first floor up stairs, entrance on either Montgomery or Sacramento streets. Dr. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the result of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists, involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that a premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruits tasted long afterward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Urthra on going to stool or make water, Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded, and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writing, or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo, and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened, and sleep disturbed by dreams; melancholy, sighing, palpitation, faintings, coughs and low fevers, while some have external rheumatic pain, and numbness of the body. Some of the most common symptoms are pimples in the face, and itching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease should apply immediately to DR. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter, as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six or eight weeks. Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo, Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system. Dr. PERRAULT'S diploma is in his Room, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required. Patients suffering under chronic diseases can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor and that advertised physician till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us. Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor with the assurance of relief.
